

Why attend a stroke survivor or caregiver support group?

- To learn about stroke recovery
- Share tips on how to adjust to daily life, tasks and routines
- Make social and emotional connections
- Understand and share personal experiences
- Reduce isolation and the feeling of being alone
- Learn about community resources
- Led by a trained facilitator
- Open to new members, both stroke survivors and caregivers

Learn the signs of stroke

Face is it drooping?
Arms can you raise both?
Speech is it slurred or jumbled?
Time to call 9-1-1 right away.

Act FAST because the quicker you act, the more of the person you save.

First Step Group

Set as required

A small introductory group intended for those who may not yet feel comfortable in attending a larger group.

Peers to Peers Stroke Talk

A venue for stroke survivors to meet and develop positive, supportive relationships with others.

- Stroke survivors sharing recovery, successes, and challenges.
- Receive expert stroke related information from relevant topics and community resources.

Caregiver/Survivor Groups

Caregivers and survivors meet at the same time and location but in separate rooms. Each facilitated group has an opportunity to share their individual thoughts and feelings.

- Make social, therapeutic, and emotional connections with other caregivers.
- Caregivers learn the importance of self-care, while survivors can build supportive relationships with other survivors.

Back on Track Group Younger Survivors

A group for younger survivors and their caregivers. Facilitated discussions on family dynamics following a stroke, including:

- Changing family roles/responsibilities
- Financial advice
- Returning to work and workplace accommodations
- Child-rearing
- Maintaining healthy relationships and lifestyles

Social Recreational Group “Life Goes On”

After a stroke, life can get better!
Knowing your not alone helps

Are you interested in joining a positive group of people that are choosing to live a fulfilling life after a stroke? Engage in education groups, community outings, opportunities to learn from each other, be part of a team to raise awareness, and so much more offered from time to time.
